Biography:

My name is Namgyal. I was born on 24 June, 2012 in Tawang village of Arunachal Pradesh state, India. My village is small but very beautiful. It is green and mountain all around. My parents work in field. They grey grow rice and corn. I have two brothers and three sisters in my family. None of my sisters and brothers go to school. They help growing rice and collecting firewood. We also have a cow and goats. Every day my sisters go to collect wood. My father is a pious Buddhist. He is good in telling Buddhist stories. My father wanted to send me to school but there is no school in my village.

In 2019 my father sent me to Gaden Jangtse Thoesam Norling Monastery. Here in monastery, I was admitted to school. I read in Kindergarten. I study English, Tibetan, Calligraphy, and Buddhist Stories. My father is now very happy to see my Tibetan calligraphy.

I was amazed to see my school ground and the crowds of children. My school is very big. I made many friends.
