Biography:

My name is Sonam Tashi. I was born on 02 January, 2011 in Tawang village of Arunachal Pradesh state, India. My home is small and is near to the main road. My village people are mostly farmers. My mother works in field. She grows rice and corn. I have one brother and three sisters in my family. My father died last year. None of my sisters and brother goes to school. They help mother in field and collecting firewood. My sisters work in other people's field to help mother. My mother is a pious Buddhist. She does not miss her daily prayer.

In 2018, it was an early morning, my mother packed my clothes and sent me to Gaden Jangtse Thoesam Norling Monastery. Here in monastery, I was admitted to school. I read in class 1. I study English, Tibetan, Calligraphy, and Buddhist Stories. I love English and Tibetan language.

My school is very big. I have many friends.
